

¡Share with your children a gift for a lifetime!

Sones de México Ensemble's Music & Culture Saturday Academy at Darwin School

songs, music theory, culture, history, and geography of México for children

Saturdays (Jan 28 - Mar 25) 9am-12pm

9 week course for Darwin School students (...and their parents too!)

taught by a musician from the group Sones de México Ensemble

at Darwin School, 3116 W. Belden Ave, Chicago

- Mexican violin & jarana guitar
- Mexican clarinet & jarana guitar
- Mexican dance & percussion

There will also be a chorus, free seminars about Mexican music, culture, history, and geography of México and live student performances every week.

fee is only $100

for each student or parent. It includes 9 sessions, each with 3 hours of instruction

limited to 60 students a new class will open when we get 20 students on a waiting list. Register now!

register online before January 27 at sonesdemexico.com/darwin/

For more information ask at the Darwin School office or call Sones de México at (773) 728-1164.